

WEEK TWO

(I suggest doing two categories each day, so all ten will be accomplished by the week's end.)

Over the next couple weeks, your child will be creating layered maps using clear page protector sheets and extra fine (very thin) permanent markers (in a variety of colors).

AFRICA (Day 1)

Go to <http://worldatlas.com/webimage/countrys/africa/printpage/africa.htm> .

Print one copy of the map for each child, preferably on white cardstock paper. Have each child slip the copy of the map into a clear page protector. Using an extra fine permanent marker, have each child trace the outline of Africa onto the page protector sheet. Then, have each child mark the following on the page protector sheet:

Atlantic Ocean
Mediterranean Sea
Red Sea
Arabian Sea
Indian Ocean
Gulf of Guinea

ANTARCTICA (Day 1)

Go to <http://worldatlas.com/webimage/countrys/an.htm> . Print one copy of the map for each child, preferably on white cardstock paper. Have each child slip the copy of the map into a clear page protector. Using an extra fine permanent marker, have each child trace the outline of Antarctica onto the page protector sheet. Then, have each child mark the following on the page protector sheet:

Atlantic Ocean
Weddell Sea
Southern Ocean
Indian Ocean
Ross Sea
Pacific Ocean

ASIA (Day 2)

Go to <http://worldatlas.com/webimage/countrys/asia/printpage/asiain.htm> . Print one copy of the map for each child, preferably on white cardstock paper. Have each child slip the copy of the map into a clear page protector. Using an extra fine permanent marker, have each child trace the outline of Asia (including North Asia, Southeast Asia, and the Middle East) onto the page protector sheet. Then, have each child mark the following on the page protector sheet:

Arctic Ocean	Sea of Japan
Pacific Ocean	Bering Sea
Indian Ocean	Sea of Okhotsk
Black Sea
Caspian Sea
Persian Gulf
Arabian Sea
Bay of Bengal
South China Sea

NORTH AMERICA (Day 3)

Go to <http://worldatlas.com/webimage/countrys/namerica/printpage/namerica.htm> . Print one copy of the map for each child, preferably on white cardstock paper. Have each child slip the copy of the map into a clear page protector. Using an extra fine permanent marker, have each child trace the outline of North America onto the page protector sheet. Then, have each child mark the following on the page protector sheet:

Pacific Ocean
Atlantic Ocean
Arctic Ocean
Bering Sea
Gulf of Alaska
Beaufort Sea
Hudson Bay
Labrador Sea
Gulf of Mexico
Caribbean Sea

SOUTH AMERICA (Day 4)

Go to <http://worldatlas.com/webimage/countrys/samerica/printpage/samainp.htm> . Print one copy of the map for each child, preferably on white cardstock paper. Have each child slip the copy of the map into a clear page protector. Using an extra fine permanent marker, have each child trace the outline of South America onto the page protector sheet. Then, have each child mark the following on the page protector sheet:

Pacific Ocean
Atlantic Ocean
Southern Ocean
Caribbean Sea
Scotia Sea

UNITED STATES of AMERICA (Day 4)

THIS WILL NOT BE A LAYERED MAP, SO NORMAL WEIGHT COPY PAPER IS FINE.

1. Go to <http://www.enchantedlearning.com/usa/rivers/> . Print one copy of the map and rivers statistics for each child.
2. Next, go to <http://www.enchantedlearning.com/usa/outlinemaps/rivers/> . Print one copy of the US rivers outline map for each child.
3. Using the printout from step #1, have each child label the following rivers (by drawing along the line of the river and by writing the name of the river) on the map from step #2 using a different colored extra fine permanent marker for each river:

Missouri River
Mississippi River
Rio Grande River
Colorado River
Snake River
Ohio River
Connecticut River

(Include any other rivers you want your children to learn.)

CHRISTIAN MARTYRS AROUND the WORLD (Day 5)

Print out two worksheets for a new Christian martyr for this week. Use information from either Voice of the Martyrs or Gospel for Asia (or from your favorite Christian martyrs website[s]), as well as your favorite map website(s), to complete the two worksheets.

MISCELLANEOUS (Day 5)

1. Go to <http://www.graphicmaps.com/aatlas/printpage/majorsea.htm> and print out a map of the major seas of the world, one copy for each child.
2. Have your child rewrite the number key with the names of each major sea at the bottom of the page.
3. Using a globe or a wall map of the world (if you have one), have your child locate the seas.
